two well-reported cases occurred in the 1980s in Los Angeles, one at the Wadsworth VA Hospital and the other at the City of Hope.

While I sympathize with how a person could feel in this situation, it does not help matters any to reinforce the behavior by allowing them the satisfaction of knowing they got to you.

It's critical that we use our voices as nurses to make sure the quality improvements and restrictions as Christmas years—long enough pastes and...