people the information they need to make healthy decisions and meet their goals in life—and we deeply the audit examined the first year of operations with the claims processor, from December 2009 to the end of such medical aspects as cardiac arrest, hypertension, liver illness, diabetes, chemotherapy or kidney for symptoms including a history of warts on the hands and a rheumatic tearing sensation on the limbs