such a side effect is not surprising considering the fact that you apply regaine to the scalp area which is closely linked with neurological pain receptors.

boomers significantly underestimate the annual cost of nursing home care by estimating that a year's stay averages 46,890 when the actual average cost is nearly double at 90,520.

we are all guilty and innocent of both behaviors and responsible for our reactions and actions