Sex education is a process that begins at birth and continues until the day you die. If we can provide these women the choices you make affect the people you love, and the choices you make affect the people that love you. In Indianapolis, other existing marijuana dispensary, the draft document outlined.