state house speaker gordon fox commented on the passage, stating, "we are truly social creatures, and that is the essence of this legislation."

"a primary focus of my campaign is that we need republicans in office who will have the courage to say no to federal bailouts of big business," he declared.

however, it is estimated that one-third of all nursing homes have incidents of nursing home abuse.