The Standard Poor's 500 index was down 12.54 points, or 0.74 percent, at 1,682.46.

Individual citizens, cooperatives, and private companies can grow a specified amount of weed each month, though it may only be sold to consumers by state-run pharmacies.

The Wall Street Journal editorialized on November 15: “The Obama administration’s answer...